ANGRET PURISHMENT FOR BUOLDING WOMEN.

In England, there was formerly a punishment for scolds and shrews, which consisted of ducking them in the water. The apparatus used was called cucking-stool, or ducking-rivel, and was formed by a obsir or stool being placed at the end of a long pale. In this, the refunding Terrele who in 1851 say that they are between 20 was placed, and then immerated in some and 25. The return, also, between 30 river or pond.
